Re: The Travelers Indemnity Company v Trisura Specialty Insurance Company and Utica National Insurance Company of Ohio
Case No.:1:23-cv-08255-KPF

Dear Magistrate Judge Parker,

This firm represents defendant Trisura Specialty Insurance Company ("Trisura"). We write this letter, jointly with counsel for plaintiff The Travelers Indemnity Company ("Travelers") and defendant Utica National Insurance Company of Ohio ("Utica"), to respectfully request a two-week adjournment of the settlement telephone conference with Your Honor, currently scheduled for 4:30pm on Wednesday, February 19, 2025.<sup>1</sup>

Your Honor will recall that the parties appeared for a settlement conference on Thursday, January 30, 2025. The conference was adjourned to allow Travelers and Trisura time to provide Utica with their respective defense counsel invoices from the underlying Bordonaro Action for analysis and to assist in further settlement negotiations.

Although the parties have exchanged all the requisite invoices, the review of the voluminous records has taken longer than originally anticipated. The parties therefore respectfully request an additional two weeks to allow their clients to properly analyze the financial records and formulate settlement offers, if applicable.

The parties thank the Court and its staff in advance for its consideration of this joint request.

Very truly yours,

CHARTWELL LAW

<sup>1</sup> The parties apologize for failing to comply with Your Honor's Individual Rule requiring 48 hours' notice for adjournments. Presidents' days closures precluded counsel's ability to communicate with their clients.
